At the Arcadia Woman's Club's annual Membership Tea Sept. 12 at the First Avenue Clubhouse, President Mary Martinetti and Membership Chair Irmgard Schramm welcomed new and prospective members to the venerable organization.

Icy champagne punch, along with tea, coffee, tea sandwiches and petit fours, helped allay the sizzling heat of the day. In the flower-filled, air-conditioned comfort of the clubhouse, members greeted old friends and neighbors and caught up on their summer activities as past presidents poured at the tea table.

Floretta Lauber, program chairwoman, has made many plans for general meetings for the coming year, including speakers, singers and other activities and benefits. The general meetings take place the first Wednesdays of every month during the club's season.

Both Progressive Bridge and Bridgefest will continue with Progressive Bridge on Tuesdays, Sept. 25 and Oct. 23., and Bridgefest today with a catered luncheon for $7.

Ruth Hawkins is chairing the Day at the Races committee benefit which will take place on Nov. 1 at Santa Anita Race Track with tickets at $6.50 and luncheon in the Clubhouse at the track.

The Books and Travel section of the club is completing plans for its meeting Oct. 10, which will feature Marge Elliot's slides of her trip to South Africa.

Founded in 1914, the Woman's Club of Arcadia was incorporated in 1930, federated with State and District clubs in 1920 and with the General Federation of Women's Clubs in 1924. Early on, the club sponsored the first lending library in Arcadia until the city council established the Public Library in 1920, spon-
